What is lot 1039. Did I lift $1.10 on it? I can not it no. I did not want for any of it. I don't want to waste money on things on stuff I never want for.

I bid 26 for World's Fair Ticket.
What is 1039 worth to lift the year

Mr. A. C. McDonald,

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 15th. received. Bid sheet enclosed, which was the order we had to obey. You bid on Lot 1039, sold at the sale of June 3rd. & 4th. 25¢ each. All bids at auction sale are made per piece, and we should suppose that a man that has been in the business as long as you have, would have known it. If you meant 25¢ for the lot of Columbian Exhibition Tickets, you should have stated so; you would not have secured them at the sale, as 11¢ each is what was paid for them. However, we have no doubt that Mr. Friedman will fix the matter up all right. What is the most you are willing to pay for the lot? Please answer by return of mail.

The mistake as you can readily see was not ours in any way whatever. Lot 308, you will notice you bid $3.25 for, = 0 1/2 cents, which would be about an average of 8-1/4¢ each. That was the reason we sent you a lot on approval at $5.00; but as poorer ones yesterday sold for 10¢ each, you are at liberty to return them.

Please return the bid-sheet, and oblige,

Yours respectfully,

S. H. & H. Chapman

Dear Sir: -

Yours of 8/30/04 to hand & contents noted - I think you are mistaken about them being bought at auction @ that price - look it up - you sent them of your own accord on approval.
I remember receiving them some time ago & as the postage was high I never gave them a second thought but laid them away. I forget how many there was will you kindly inform me or if you can make me a very low price - we can do business on them.

Thanking you in advance & hoping to have an early reply -

I remain

Very Truly Yours.

Dear Sir:

Enclosure $100 in 500000

You have not answered my question - What would you charge for to dispose of some of my 26 teeth at auction Have you any paper money to sell at wholesale in large lots?

Let me hear soon.

Yours truly, M. C. Donald
